

Power for your market entry

Anyone who focuses on the import of goods knows that customs processing with subsequent storage and handling capabilities are the key to success.

But great expertise is also in demand for the export of goods. Lagerhaus Harburg Spedition GmbH has been a recognised specialist in this sector for more than 30 years. Here, the immediate proximity to the Hamburg overseas harbour is more than a duty for us. Our AEO approval provides you with the security required for your import/export business.
